

J. P. COOKE SAYS FIGHT MUST GO ON

President's Report to Sugar
Planters Reviews Work
Done in Washington

FOUNDATION LAID FOR CAMPAIGN OF FUTURE

Low Price of Sugar Referred To, but World's Consumption Is Also Rapidly
Increasing

STRIKING POINTS IN STRONG ADDRESS

- Fight against free-sugar has summer has laid ground-work for successful battle in future.
- Fight must go on until reason-able degree of protection is assured.
- Experiment station work achieves splendid results.
- Labor conditions satisfactory during past year.
- Free-sugar blow will necessitate curtailing much warfar work among plantation employees.
- Sugar prices for year lower than for any year since 1907.
- World's crop of great proportions.
- Hawaiian crop of 1913 probably larger than that of 1912 but smaller than that of 1912.
- Tributes paid to retiring and incoming governors.

A strong note of optimism, coupled with the serious statement that Hawaii must continue a well-organized fight for the safety of the industry, pervaded the address of the retiring president, Mr. J. P. Cooke, delivered before the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association assembled in annual meeting this morning.

President Cooke said to the members of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association:

"It is a duty which we have assumed during the present year, when the Democratic party came into power, it was only reasonable to expect that heavy reductions would be made in the duties imposed upon the Payne-Aldrich law. The domestic sugar interests felt hopeful, however, that a reasonable amount of duty would be retained on sugar, as is Democratic platform declared. 'We favor the ultimate attainment of the principles we advocate by legislation that will not injure or destroy legitimate industry.' All through the campaign assurances were given by the leaders of that party that at least a REVENUE duty must be maintained on sugar. The fact that during the preceding Congress the so-called Bristow bill passed the Senate with only two dissenting Democratic votes seemed to lead us to expect that nothing like free sugar would ever pass that body. The two Democratic senators who voted against the Bristow bill did so because they thought the cut on sugar was too great.

The announcement made during last March that the administration advocated free sugar came as a blow to the producers of nearly half of the sugar consumed in the United States. A great industry, extending over 18 states and the territories of Porto Rico and Hawaii was menaced; an annual production amounting to over $100,000,000 was involved, as well as hundreds of millions of dollars invested in plants and sugar enterprises.

As soon as the policy of the administration became known, large delegations from the various sugar interests appeared in Washington for the purpose of endeavoring to show how the party pledges had been broken and how disastrous the effects of free sugar will be.

HAWAII FOREMOST IN FIGHT.

Hawaii, the policy of the Hawaiian Planters' Association has been to keep in the background, ordinary of national legislation, but sugar began to threaten the life of the territory. ## Optimism and Fighting Spirit Pervade His Address to Planters

J. P. Cooke, retiring president of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association.

PRESIDENT COOKE ON THE TWO GOVERNORS.

Governor Frear has completed six years of most efficient service in the governor's chair. In the beginning of his administration he gave evidence of unusual ability in analyzing the economic problems existing in the territory and in constructive suggestions and policies designed to solve them. Each succeeding year has shown increased breadth of judgment in the handling of public affairs. This territory would have been most fortunate if it could have had another term under him, and thus have had the opportunity of seeing his policies carried out and his plans carried into effect.

"President Wilson has appointed Mr. L. E. Pinkham as governor of the territory and he has now been confirmed by the senate. The newly-appointed governor is a man of wide experience and deep sympathy. He has shown marked executive ability in public work, and should have the hearty and loyal support of this organization, with which he has for several years associated. From Mr. Cooke's address to the planters.

L. E. Pinkham's confirmation by the senate was applauded by the planters in their annual convention this morning. President J. P. Cooke gave the cue when, on coming to the governor's nomination in his annual address, he interjected the oral remark: "Since this was written Mr. Pinkham has been confirmed by the senate, which gives me, for one, very great pleasure."

One of the largest attendances in the history of the organization was present when the first business session of the thirty-third annual meeting of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association was called to order by President Cooke, in Castle & Cooke hall at 10 o'clock this morning. More than sixty members and staff officers of the association were in the room, which is much larger than the former place of assembly. W. O. Smith, secretary, called the roll, the responses showing the following personal and representative attendance:

NEW GOVERNOR, THROUGH THE STAR-BULLETIN, SENDS A MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE

In the first message sent to Hawaii after his confirmation as governor, L. E. Pinkham briefly sets forth the ideals that will govern his administration of affairs. On Saturday, immediately upon receiving the news from Washington that the senate had approved his nomination, the Star-Bulletin carried to the new executive the heartiest congratulations of this paper and its assurance of cooperation in all good measures for the progress and prosperity of the territory.

Late Saturday afternoon—too late for publication on that day—the Star-Bulletin received the following cable message:

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 29.
HONOLULU STAR-BULLETIN:

Through your paper I wish to thank my personal and political and public friends for their congratulations and expressions of good-will.

May we all labor for the good of Hawaii, that sterling manhood may prevail and justice and opportunity be afforded to the industrious and home-loving, however humble. May men of wealth seek the privilege of aiding the establishment of unselfish progress for all.

(Signed) L. E. PINKHAM.

MAY QUALIFY IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—L. E. Pinkham will qualify as governor, taking the oath of office here, if possible. He must take the oath before a justice of the supreme court, and this has not been definitely arranged but will be determined tomorrow.

The new executive will leave on Thursday for Honolulu.

C. S. ALBERT.

A report this morning that Mr. Pinkham will arrive in Honolulu on the Sonoma December 24 is evidently inaccurate, as the Sonoma departs from Honolulu for San Francisco on December 26. It is considered likely that the new governor will arrive here in the Oceanic liner Ventura on December 22, or, failing that, on the Wilhelmina December 23, or the Mongolia December 24, the latter boat being indicated by a cablegram from Governor Frear stating that Pinkham would sail from San Francisco on Dec. 16.

SECRETARY WILL BE NAMED WHEN PINKHAM ARRIVES

OLSEN DENIES TRUTH OF HIS OWN AFFIDAVIT

Retiring Governor Fails to Advise Friends or Family When He Expects to Return

L. E. Pinkham, incoming governor, will not announce his selection of a man for territorial secretary until after his arrival at Honolulu. This is the definite statement made by retiring Governor Frear in his cable to Attorney-general Thayer yesterday. Frear adds that Mr. Pinkham will leave San Francisco for the islands December 18 and that he will meet E. A. Mott-Smith, the present territorial secretary, at San Francisco, the two returning to Hawaii together.

Mr. Frear's cable also states that Mr. Pinkham will qualify before leaving the national capital. A bit of news confirmed by the Star-Bulletin's special correspondent at Washington this morning.

As to the plans of the retiring governor for the immediate future, nothing is known here. In response to a query today, Mrs. Frear said she had received no recent word indicating whether he expects to return home soon. He may prolong indefinitely his visit in the East or he may conclude to make the world tour which in times past he has said he would like to enjoy before settling down to the law practice in Honolulu. He has declared repeatedly and emphatically that he has no intention of leaving the territory permanently and that he intends returning to practice law here.

MOLOKAI MAN DROPPED DEAD ON COACHING LINE ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Death on the coaching-lines at a baseball game on Thanksgiving day caused the cessation of a hard-fought contest at Pukoo, Molokai, last week, according to news received by The Star-Bulletin yesterday.

Joel Kaoo, postmaster, also an employee of the Molokai ranch at Kaunakakai, died of heart failure while coaching one of his team-mates on third base in the game between the Kaunakakai and Pukoo teams. Kaoo was one of the most popular young men on the island and his death came as a shock to all who knew him. He leaves a wife, mother and father and three sisters. The funeral services were held at his home and were largely attended. The remains were carried by his fellow-employees of the ranch to the Kapakea cemetery. The funeral was one of the largest ever held on Molokai.

The sudden death of Kaoo stopped the Thanksgiving game, which will probably not be played off.

A meeting of the King's Daughters will be held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Hopper, 1802 Keaunoku street, at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Important business will be transacted and a large attendance is requested.

RAYMOND MEETING WITH BIG SUCCESS ON MOLOKAI

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
KALUAHA, Molokai, Nov. 29.—George S. Raymond, public school inspector of the territory, who has been visiting this island on a tour of inspection, conducted a very successful teachers' meeting here last Wednesday. Kaal of Kanaakakai school; Edward Kupu of Waiakua school; David Kakaia of Hila school; and S. E. Baker of Kalahe school. Classes were conducted by each teacher very successfully and practically all the teachers were present.

He further recommends that the government immediately proceed to the building of two additional dreadnoughts, eight destroyers and three submarines.

Murderous Outlaw in Mine; Trying to Asphyxiate Him

[Associated Press Cable]
SALT LAKE, Utah, Dec. 1.—With six murders in two weeks to his credit and a bloody record behind him, Ralph Lopez, Mexican, is today the subject of determined attack in a deep mine near Bingham.

Lopez began his latest career of crime on November 21, when he killed Chief of Police Grant of Bingham and Deputy Sheriff Otto Whitcomb and Nephew Jensen, afterward taking to the hills. Early that morning he killed John Valdez, a fellow countryman, near Garatoga Springs. He fled into the hills and the pursuit began. Caught by a posse, the desperado killed two men in two successive shots and wounded another as badly as he died soon afterward.

Last Saturday another posse ran the outlaw to earth. He killed two deputies sheriff and escaped into a mine, where he has since been cornered.

Each of the 15 entrances to the mine has now been sealed, while 300 deputies are on guard at the mouthheads. Chemical smudges have been lighted in an endeavor to asphyxiate the outlaw. The entire population of Bingham, 10,000 people, is watching and waiting.

Lopez is a former miner and intimately acquainted with 10 miles of mine workings, shafts and tunnels, and there are prospects of a prolong. He is amply supplied with dynamite and siege.

Indianapolis Again Strike Scene

[Associated Press Cable]
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 1.—Carrying out their threat to strike, the local teamsters union laid down this morning and refused to work. The new mayor, inaugurated upon the resignation of Mayor Shant, who quit because of opposition of the business interests, has established his headquarters at the police station.

Today 250 citizens were sworn in as special deputies. They are patrolling the business section of the city, but the strike has almost ceased traffic.

Huerta Spends a Quiet Sunday

[Associated Press Cable]
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 1.—Dictator Huerta again disappeared over Sunday and there were wild rumors that he was assassinated or had abdicated, but all the rumors were dispelled when he returned to the capital today, explaining that he has been spending Sunday in the suburbs.

Regular Congress is in Session

[Associated Press Cable]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—The second session of the 85d Congress opened today. President Wilson's message will be read tomorrow.

ONE OF CHARGES AGAINST LYMAN CLEARED AWAY

CANADIAN GESE IN FLOCKS SEEN ON BIG ISLAND

[Special Star-Bulletin Wireless]
HILO, Dec. 1.—Circuit Judge Parsons today sustained the plea in bar made by Attorney Frank Thompson on behalf of Norman Lyman that the statute of limitations on negotiating paper, two years, had run on the charge in the indictment, and this case against Lyman in connection with the graft probe is cleared away.

Special Prosecutor Brockton stated at noon today that other proceedings on an embezzlement charge will be brought.

A continuance for plea was secured in the McBride case.

Wise can testify as to the unusual sight of Canadian geese, for he killed one of them last week and had it for Thanksgiving. It was a big fat brant and he says that there is no yuletide that it is of the Canadian variety.

"There is splendid plover-shooting around Waimea now and little advantage being taken of it," he said this morning. "We have seen quite a number of the Canadian geese. They look somewhat like the Hawaiian geese, but have distinguishing marks on the head and neck."

Wise is down to attend a meeting of the Hawaii fair commission, of which he is a member. He will return by the Mauna Kea next Wednesday.
